FRESHMEN STUDENTS

Take Placement Tests

Unless exempt, first-time college students graduating from high school must take the English Placement Test (EPT) and/or Entry Level Math (ELM) exams. Placement tests are mandatory to attend SF State in the Fall. Take the placement tests no later than the May 6 exam, (Must register by April 21, 2017.) Students with certain ELM and EPT scores must take summer coursework, called Early Start, prior to enrollment in classes at orientation. Students with certain EPT scores will also have to complete Directed Self Placement prior to orientation. Check your email used on your application frequently for notifications. For more information, visit testing.sfsu.edu/tests/elmept

Send Official Transcripts

Upon graduation from high school, please arrange for official high school transcripts to be received by the Office of Admissions no later than July 15. If you have taken any college courses or earned a score of three or above on any Advanced Placement Examinations, please have the testing company forward an official transcript or test report to the Office of Admissions. Proof of high school graduation must be posted on transcripts.

Attend Orientation

Our New Student Orientations connect you to all aspects of campus and academic life at SF State. Attendance is highly encouraged for all entering freshmen. Space in orientation sessions and Fall classes is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. Sign up for orientation via your Student Center on the SF State Gateway (gateway.sfsu.edu/applicants) after you accept your admission offer (AAO).

Please reference the New Student Orientation website (newstudentprograms.sfsu.edu) for more information or send an email: nsp@sfsu.edu.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Verify Requirements

You must verify completion of the following admission requirements prior to enrollment: 60 transferable semester (90 quarter) units, with a University-determined minimum transferable GPA, and “C” or better grades in Oral Communication, Written Communication, Critical Thinking and Quantitative Reasoning/Math. Please arrange for all official transcripts to be received by Admissions no later than July 15, 2017.

Transfer Student Orientations

Our New Transfer Orientations are one-day advising and class registration sessions aimed to help prepare you to join the SF State community. Space in orientation sessions and Fall classes is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. Sign up for orientation via your Student Center on the SF State Gateway (gateway.sfsu.edu/applicants) after you accept your admission offer (AAO) and pay your $100 enrollment confirmation deposit.
